The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Lesson | Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, Please be seated.

you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149 | BCP page 807

- 1 Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD a new song; *
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; *
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people * and adorns the poor with victory.
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat *
and a two-edged sword in their hand;
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations *
and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their kings in chains *
and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all his faithful people. Hallelujah!

The Gospel | Luke 6:20-31

Gospeler

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

The Sermon: The Rev. Remington Slone

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him. Pray that they may find and be found by him. Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed. Pray for those who have died. Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day. Silence

Prayers of intercession and thanksgiving may be offered silently or aloud.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession and Absolution | BCP page 360

Celebrant

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

The Peace

The Celebrant says to the people:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People

And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem

“Press On, All You Saints”

Ben Shive and Kristyn Getty

St. David's Basement Band

Where two or three are gathered in the name of the Lord, He is here, He is here in our midst.

And we will sing together, be renewed by the Word. When we part, may we go in His peace.

*Chorus: Press on, all you saints, press on till the end.
Christ with us, ever with us until He comes again.
Press on, all you saints, run and run to win!
Christ with us, ever with us until He comes again.*

Now let the Word be scattered like the seed on the soil; day by day, watch it grow in His care.

And may you be a shelter as you reach to the lost, glad in hope, calm in pain, true in prayer.

And may He find us waiting with our lamps burning still; keeping watch through the night till He comes.

For soon it will be morning and the sun will appear; Christ who brought us this far bring us home.

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with David and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please pray together in unison.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

SERVE

with us St. David's

As we journey together in love and grow in faith, we are continually inspired by the call to serve others—living out the example set by Jesus. We invite you to discover the many ways you can make a meaningful impact through service, both at St. David's and in the broader community. Below are some of our current volunteer opportunities. For a full list and detailed descriptions, please visit www.stdavidchurch.org.

Family Promise Host Week: November 16-23. St.

David's supports Family Promise of North Fulton/Dekalb, an organization dedicated to helping families who are experiencing housing insecurity. We serve as a host congregation for Family Promise several times a year. We will welcome families to the Sinclair House November 16-23, sharing the love of Jesus by providing each family with a comfortable room of their own and nourishing meals.

It takes a lot of volunteers to make the week a success. Please use the QR code to see how you can help. Contact: Claudia Zimmerman, zimmermanncm@gmail.com.

NFCC CoatsGiving 2025! In partnership with North Fulton Community Charities (NFCC). This November, St. David's is once again honored to host CoatsGiving, providing warm coats and Thanksgiving meals to more than 600 families in need. Here's how you can be part of this meaningful outreach:

- Donate new or clean gently used coats, hats, & gloves. We're collecting new or gently used coats, hats, and gloves for all ages. Drop off donations in the designated area in the mailbox hallway. No time to shop? Use the QR Code to order directly from our Amazon Wish List. Deadline: Sunday, November 9.
- Create a Thanksgiving Blessing Card. Help us reach our goal of 600 cards—one for each family! Use your creativity to share art, prayers, or words of encouragement. All ages are welcome to participate—make it a family project! Pick up blank cards and return completed ones to the Blessing Box in the mailbox hallway.

- Volunteer for CoatsGiving 2025 the week of November 17-22. Join us as we welcome families and volunteers from across the community. We need help greeting guests, distributing items, and creating a warm, welcoming atmosphere. Contact Shelby Crain at 404-316-2673 or shelbycrain687@gmail.com to sign up.
- Thanksgiving Protein Donation. Sunday, November 9 & 16, 7:30 a.m. - 1:45 p.m. Items to donate: frozen turkey (breast or whole), frozen chicken (breast or whole), holiday ham, or frozen lasagna. Drive around to the side kitchen door of Jeffords Hall and the St. David's Men's Club will be there to take your turkey or other protein.

No time to shop? Make a financial donation to help fill coats and food shortages at NFCC. Just use this QR Code.

Thank you for helping us walk in love as we share warmth, food, and hope with our neighbors this Thanksgiving season.

Annual Council Service Project: "We Will, With

God's Help." This year's Annual Council Service Project, led by the Diocesan Youth Commission (DIOEYC), is a collaboration with the non-profit El Refugio. El Refugio's hospitality house, for families visiting loved ones at Stewart Detention Center (SDC), provides notes of encouragement, activity kits for kids, prayers, and support that says you are not forgotten. The DIOEYC is asking parishes to help in two main ways in October:

- 1) Donate money to the service project: <https://www.tfaforms.com/5196781>;
- 2) Donate supplies off the project's Amazon Wishlist: https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3GAUHZP3KMPT9?ref_=wl_share.

In addition, you can write cards or notes of encouragement to the families impacted by immigration detention. For more information, visit the project's website: <https://eycdioatl.org/service-project/>. Questions? Contact Caroline Netto, a member of the DIOEYC, carolinenettos@gmail.com.

We will learn about the traditions of this celebration day as we go through the remembrances. The event will end with "COCO" the movie. Join us for the fun, fellowship, snacks and refreshments as we are rooted and grounded in love with those present and those who have gone ahead. Questions?
