CONGRATULATIONS to our 2024 Education for Ministry (EfM) graduates, Jim Berry and Nelleke Yarbrough!

Class Openings

St. David's has proudly sponsored an Education for Ministry (EfM) program for the past 37 years and is one of the longest-running EfM programs in the Atlanta Diocese. The class is currently led by Steve and Betty Cunningham, who have a combined tenure of 24 years as certified EfM mentors at St. David's.

EfM is a four-year program sponsored by the School of Theology of the University of the South at Sewanee for adults who desire to take a deep dive into scripture, church history, and practical theology in a small-group study and discussion setting.

The next EfM class at St. David's will begin in September of this year and continue through mid-May of 2026. There are currently four openings for first-year students. Anyone interested in learning more about EfM and enrolling in the class should email Steve. Valuable information about EfM can also be accessed at the national website.
