The Collect of the Day

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Lesson | Daniel 7:1-3; 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever — for ever and ever.”

Psalm 149 | BCP page 807

- 1 Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD a new song; *
 sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; *
 let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
 let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people *
 and adorns the poor with victory.
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
 let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat *
 and a two-edged sword in their hand;
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations *
 and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their kings in chains *
 and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
 this is glory for all his faithful people. Hallelujah!

Please read responsively by half-verse.

The Second Lesson | Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Gospel | Luke 6:20-31

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

Then the Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

The Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please pray together in unison.

We welcome you to receive communion at the altar. An usher will guide you forward at the appropriate time. If you prefer a gluten free wafer, please let the minister know. If you would like to come forward, but not receive communion, please cross your arms over your chest in the form of an "X" and the minister will offer a prayer of blessing.

Please notify an usher if you or a family member desire that the Sacrament be brought to you in the pew rather than at the altar rail.

*Please kneel, as able, and

The Distribution

The Postcommunion Prayer | BCP page 339

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Blessing

May God give you grace to follow his saints in faith and hope and love; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

SERVE

with us St. David's

As we journey together in love and grow in faith, we are continually inspired by the call to serve others—living out the example set by Jesus. We invite you to discover the many ways you can make a meaningful impact through service, both at St. David's and in the broader community. Below are some of our current volunteer opportunities. For a full list and detailed descriptions, please visit www.stdavidchurch.org.

Family Promise Host Week: November 16-23. St.

David's supports Family Promise of North Fulton/Dekalb, an organization dedicated to helping families who are experiencing housing insecurity. We serve as a host congregation for Family Promise several times a year. We will welcome families to the Sinclair House November 16-23, sharing the love of Jesus by providing each family with a comfortable room of their own and nourishing meals.

It takes a lot of volunteers to make the week a success. Please use the QR code to see how you can help. Contact: Claudia Zimmerman, zimmermanncm@gmail.com.

NFCC CoatsGiving 2025! In partnership with North Fulton Community Charities (NFCC). This November, St. David's is once again honored to host CoatsGiving, providing warm coats and Thanksgiving meals to more than 600 families in need. Here's how you can be part of this meaningful outreach:

- Donate new or clean gently used coats, hats, & gloves. We're collecting new or gently used coats, hats, and gloves for all ages. Drop off donations in the designated area in the mailbox hallway. No time to shop? Use the QR Code to order directly from our Amazon Wish List. Deadline: Sunday, November 9.
- Create a Thanksgiving Blessing Card. Help us reach our goal of 600 cards—one for each family! Use your creativity to share art, prayers, or words of encouragement. All ages are welcome to participate—make it a family project! Pick up blank cards and return completed ones to the Blessing Box in the mailbox hallway.

- Volunteer for CoatsGiving 2025 the week of November 17-22. Join us as we welcome families and volunteers from across the community. We need help greeting guests, distributing items, and creating a warm, welcoming atmosphere. Contact Shelby Crain at 404-316-2673 or shelbycrain687@gmail.com to sign up.
- Thanksgiving Protein Donation. Sunday, November 9 & 16, 7:30 a.m. - 1:45 p.m. Items to donate: frozen turkey (breast or whole), frozen chicken (breast or whole), holiday ham, or frozen lasagna. Drive around to the side kitchen door of Jeffords Hall and the St. David's Men's Club will be there to take your turkey or other protein.

No time to shop? Make a financial donation to help fill coats and food shortages at NFCC. Just use this QR Code.

Thank you for helping us walk in love as we share warmth, food, and hope with our neighbors this Thanksgiving season.

Annual Council Service Project: "We Will, With God's Help."

This year's Annual Council Service Project, led by the Diocesan Youth Commission (DIOEYC), is a collaboration with the non-profit El Refugio. El Refugio's hospitality house, for families visiting loved ones at Stewart Detention Center (SDC), provides notes of encouragement, activity kits for kids, prayers, and support that says you are not forgotten. The DIOEYC is asking parishes to help in two main ways in October:

- 1) Donate money to the service project: <https://www.tfaforms.com/5196781>;
- 2) Donate supplies off the project's Amazon Wishlist: https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3GAUHZP3KMPT9?ref_=wl_share.

In addition, you can write cards or notes of encouragement to the families impacted by immigration detention. For more information, visit the project's website: <https://eycdioatl.org/service-project/>. Questions? Contact Caroline Netto, a member of the DIOEYC, carolinenettos@gmail.com.

Dia de los Muertos/Day of the Dead Celebration:

Sunday, November 2, 2:30 p.m., Grace Hall. Join us for a bilingual celebration to remember our loved ones with photos, stories, candles and music. Bring a photo to display on our ofrenda (altar), which is a shrine to honor and remember deceased loved ones, welcoming their spirits for the holiday by including favorite foods, photos, and meaningful objects that symbolize elements like earth, water, fire, and air. We will learn about the traditions of this celebration day as we go through the remembrances. The event will end with "COCO" the movie. Join us for the fun, fellowship, snacks and refreshments as we are rooted and grounded in love with those present and those who have gone ahead. Questions? Contact Mimi Guerra, mimi@stdavidchurch.org.
