arr. Joel Raney

Processional Hymn | Hymnal 304

"I come with joy to meet my Lord"

Land of Rest

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson | 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, "They shall eat and have some left." He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

Psalm 145:10-19 | BCP page 802

- 10 All your works praise you, O LORD, *
 and your faithful servants bless you.
- 11 They make known the glory of your kingdom *
 and speak of your power;
- 12 That the peoples may know of your power *
 and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.
- 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; *
 your dominion endures throughout all ages.
- 14 The LORD is faithful in all his words * and merciful in all his deeds.
- 15 The LORD upholds all those who fall; *
 he lifts up those who are bowed down.
- 16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O LORD, *
 and you give them their food in due season.
- 17 You open wide your hand *
 and satisfy the needs of every living creature.
- 18 The LORD is righteous in all his ways *
 and loving in all his works.
- 19 The LORD is near to those who call upon him, *
 to all who call upon him faithfully.

The Second Lesson | Ephesians 3:14-21

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

The Gospel | John 6:1-21

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glorify to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

The Sermon | The Rev. Chip Broadfoot

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People | Form III, BCP page 387

The Leader and People pray responsively.

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence. The People may add their own petitions.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession and Absolution | BCP page 360

Celebrant

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

The Peace

The Celebrant says to the people:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem

“When Christ Broke Bread”

Carol and Linda Muehlig
St. David’s Summer Choir

When Christ broke bread and raised the cup, our souls’ deep hungers were relieved.

Fed by the food Christ lifted up, how can we taste and not believe?

The comfort of a loved one’s voice in kind words given and received;

In these Christ’s music is rejoiced. How can we hear and not believe?

When hands are joined and we embrace, our love for Christ more love conceives.

God gives this sacrament of grace. How can we touch and not believe?

If faith is blind we see no loss; the image always we perceive

Is love resplendent on a cross. How can we see and not believe?

Christ ends the end we cannot bear. The scent of flowers as we grieve

Is winter dying in spring air. How can we live and not believe?

The Great Thanksgiving | Prayer C, BCP page 369

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus | Hymnal S-130

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord”

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Fraction Anthem | Hymnal S-164

"Lamb of God"

Franz Peter Schubert, arr. Richard Proulx

Je - sus, Lamb of God: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins: have mer - cy on us.

Please stand, or kneel, as able.

Please pray together in unison.

We welcome you to receive communion at the altar. An usher will guide you forward at the appropriate time. If you prefer a gluten free wafer, please let the minister know. If you would like to come forward, but not receive communion, please cross your arms over your chest in the form of an "X" and the minister will offer a prayer of blessing.

Please notify an usher if you or a family member desire that the Sacrament be brought to you in the pew rather than at the altar rail.

When present, Eucharistic Visitors are sent forth to bring the Bread and Wine of Communion from the Altar to those who for illness or some other reason could not join us for the service today. Please contact the pastoral care office for more information: chip@stdavidchurch.org.

Please kneel, if able, and pray together in unison.

Please stand, if able.

Communion Anthem

"I Am the Bread of Life"

Michael Scott Card
St. David's Basement Band

*Refrain: I am the Bread of Life; All who eat this bread will never die.
I am God's love revealed; I am broken, that you might be healed.*

*All who eat of this heavenly Bread, All who drink this cup of the covenant;
You will live forever, for I will raise you up. Refrain*

*No one who comes to Me shall ever hunger again. No one who believes shall ever thirst.
All that the Father draws shall come to me. And I will give them rest. Refrain*

SERVE

with us St. David's

As we walk in love together and grow deeper in faith, we are reminded of the importance of service to others. We invite you to engage with the various upcoming service opportunities within the church and in the community around us. Please go to www.stdavidchurch.org for more information or to sign up for any of these opportunities.

Path To Shine Interest Meeting: Sunday, July 28, 10:45 a.m., St. Gabriel Room. Path to Shine is looking for a few good men and women to be weekly mentors or an occasional substitute mentor for the 2024-25 school year. The new Director of the Path to Shine organization will be at our Interest Meeting on July 28 to give insights into the program and answer any questions you may have. For more information, visit our table in the church hallway on July 21 or 28, or contact Patty Ormsby, talktopao@comcast.net. Please check out our webpage and blog on the St. David's website, www.stdavidchurch.org.

Daughters of the King Discernment: Daughters of the King will be available to answer questions and provide information about DOK to all women of the church. Stop by their table on August 4th, 11th and 18th to talk with them to hear more about our Grace Chapter. Contact: Gloria Mongole, glo.mongole@gmail.com.

NFCC Food Pantry August Collection: JUICE. Real juice! Very little real juice is donated. When juice is available it is chosen very, very quickly. Apple juice is a perennial favorite for children, but other flavors (even V8 or tomato) are highly desired. We can always use juice boxes, too, but they are donated more often than regular 20 or 32 or 64 oz sizes. Reminder: PLEASE AVOID GLASS BOTTLES. Thank you, St. David's, for Being a Better Neighbor.

Drake House 20th Annual Miss Mary's Ice Cream Crankin'! Sunday, August 25, 2:00-4:00 p.m., Roswell United Methodist Church. Ice Cream Donations Needed! As part of St. David's mission to "Be A Better Neighbor," we are sponsoring a tent at the Drake House's 20th annual Miss Mary's Crankin' Ice Cream event. We need to donate 12 gallons of HOMEMADE ice cream that will be handed out on the day of the event to attendees. Please bring your 1 gallon of homemade ice cream to St. David's by Sunday August 11. If you do not have an ice cream maker you may borrow one donated to the church - just call the office (it is stored in Jeffords Hall). There are also lots of non ice cream making machine recipes found online. Please sign up to donate ice cream using the link found on St. David's website, www.stdavidchurch.org. Questions? Come by our information table in the church hallway, or contact Jennifer Rust, jrustlahood@gmail.com.

Welcome Ministry Mission: Help Father Chip!

We can all help Father Chip, and all visitors and newcomers, by wearing our name tags! It's very welcoming to let others know who we are as we greet one another at church. If you don't have a name tag - no problem! Either print your name on the form at the Welcome Desk, or email Rebecca Cline, rebecca@stdavidchurch.org. A new name tag will be printed for you. If you have a mailbox, that's where it will be! If you are new and don't yet have a mailbox, we'll leave it at the Welcome Desk for you. Let's show our Southern Hospitality by wearing nametags as we meet others in our community. Thank you for not being "Nameless" anymore!

St. David's Adult Choir Retreat: Saturday, August 17, 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Join us for St. David's Adult Choir Retreat to kick-off the program year! Returning choir members and any who are interested in joining are welcome!! The retreat includes honing your singing technique, learning new music, and previewing selections for the Fall through the Christmas season. Lunch will be provided. If you are new to the choir, please email Sue Wallace, music@stdavidchurch.org, for a time to get together for a quick "vocal orientation" before the retreat (this is NOT an audition).

118th Diocese of Atlanta Annual Council:

Delegates Needed. November 8 and 9, 2024, Holy Innocents' Episcopal School and Church. Have you ever been curious about what happens at Annual Council and want to serve St. David's? We are seeking youth, college, and adult delegates to represent St. David's at this year's Diocese of Atlanta's Annual Council. Candidates must be confirmed and in good standing. If you are interested in serving or have questions, please email Rebecca Cline, rebecca@stdavidchurch.org. Deadline to register is September 15.
